PREVENTING A SCANDAL?

The story of the marriage of the Rev. H. F. AULD, of Morrisania, and Mrs. HELEN EMMA CHRISTIR, a bewitching widow, published exclusively by THE WORLD this morning, is as interesting as a sensational novel. The young clergyman betrothed himself solemnly to the widow two years ago during the season of Lent. They would then have been united had not the rules of the Church forbidden it during the Lenten season. After that the reverend sultor had a change of heart and desired to break his engagement. The case was transferred from the Court of Cupid to that of the learned Bishop of the diocese. Dr. Porrun decided that the minister must keep his word and make the widow his wife, although he might refuse to allow her to become so in aught but name.

The marriage took place a week ago, But at the altar's foot the Rev. Mr. Auro solemnly nnced the woman he was about to make his wife, saying: "I will let you be my wife in name." I will never live with you. I will try and provide for you, but you must never darken my threshold." In the face of this the presiding minister united the couple in the solemn words of the Church service.

These remarkable people, now that the story is known, declare their action to have been induced to "prevent a scandal" in the Church. Was not this mockery of marriage the greatest scandal that could be put upon the Church? Was not the whole marriage ceremony, including the responses of the bridegroom, a falsehood and a sham at the

The woman who is now Mr. Auto's wife is spoken of as bearing an unblemished character, and the fault seems to lie wholly with the reverend and vacillating husband. If the widow had possessed proper spirit she would have refused to become his wife. She ought to have left him with his mother.

IS "BADGER" ROBBERY COMMON ?

People are trying to laugh down PHIL Darr's story about the attack made upon him by two "badger" game thieves in the Fourth avenue flat. Some go so far as to may that PHIL was struck with a bottle m a woman scrape and not shot at all. But n flattened bullet in the room, a discharged revolver, a wound in the into the skin do not usually result from a blow with a bottle.

Whether PHIL had made previous visits to the flat has nothing more to do with the case than the flowers that bloom in the spring. Beyond doubt a bold attempt to rob DALY was concocted by persons who knew that he always carried a large amount of money about his clothes, and the rufflans ought to be tracked and severely punished.

There is good reason to believe that the crime of which DALY nearly became the victim is too common in New York. The people implicated in this baffled attempt are probably regularly engaged in that line of business. Not one man in a hundred would have resisted two armed men as DALY did, especially when resistance would disclose the fact of his visit to a disreputable place. The natural thing would have been for the entrapped individual to quietly submit to robbery, and no one knows how many men are

The subject is a good one for police inquiry, and Chief BYRNES is just the man to run such criminals to earth. He has a ciue in the Dary case which may lead to startling revelations.

The Governor has issued his proclamation for a special election in the Sixth Senatorial District of this city, for a successor to County Clerk-elect REILLY. It is said that the Republicans and County Democrats are to unite in the district to elect an anti-HILL Senator, but they have no chance of Sunctor Low's seat has not yet been called. Mrs. JAMES G. BLAINE, jr., announce that she will make her venture in the theatriout profession in comedy. "I have had agh of tragedy in real life," said the young mother, sorrowfully. Why does not the tragedy end in a fitting recognition of the wife's rights and the stage be spared another society addition?

The friends of the two men who last Sunday quietly left the Methodist Church at o, Ill. , to settle a little difficulty just outside the doors, will probably give them a ral this week. It is to be hoped that the us service from which they adjourned the occasion had prepared them for Mayor Hewitt Inadvertently Lets the Cat Out of the Bag.

The County Democracy's Neat Little Scheme Exposed.

Smith and Beekman to Resign Before Hewitt Leaves Office.

The details of the plot of the County Democracy to obtain control of the Depart. ment of Public Works and the Law Depart ment for the ensuing four years has been dis-

D. Lowber Smith and Henry R Beekman are to resign and to be reappointed Commussioner of Public Works and Corporation Counsel respectively some time between Dec. 10 and Jan, 1, and will fight to maintain themselves in office for four years.

Mayor Hewitt hinted this yesterday, and the Tammany Hall leaders, wno had hoped that THE EVENING WORLD's assertion that such a scheme was brewing was not true, are to-day obliged to admit that there now seems to exist no doubt that there now seems to exist no doubt that the County Democracy, with the assistance of Mayor Hewitt, will attempt to deprive Tammany of the choicest fruits of her recent victory.

Tammany Hall men had based their hopes on Mayor Hewitt. They did not believe that he would place himself on record as a law-breaker by appointing successors to Commissioner D. Lowber Smith and Corporation Counsel Beekman for full terms from Dec. 16.

Dec. 10.

They lid not believe that Mayor Hewitt would dars set himself up as a court of last resort and declare the unconstitutionality of the Consolidation act, which makes the term of office of those two officials expire May 1,

A prominent Tammany Hall man said today:

Yes, sir; the Counties are going to try to steal the Public Works and the Corporation Counsel's office. There is no use of further coddling ourselves with the belief that they won't.

Mayor Hewitt has let the cat out of the bag. He says that there exists no conspiracy, Of course not. Mayor Hewitt is too hon-orable a gentleman to become a political con-orable a gentleman to become a political conspirator.

"Neither would he violate the law which plainly says that the terms of office of the Commissioner and the Corporation Counsel expire May 1.

"Uncle Abram's resources are many, and he has found a way to avoid being both a conspirator and a law-breaker, and he has been getting the evidence ready in advance to prove his innocence.

to prove his innocence.

"He asserted yesterday that he would fill every vacancy which exists or may exist prior to Jan. 1, and takes the trouble to tell the reporters that if Corporation Counsel Beekman were to resign he would appoint his successor.

"In that statement is to be found the meat in the cocoanut. It reveals every detail of the scheme.
The position of the Counties is that the

"The position of the Counties is that the Consolidation act is unconstitutional, and that the terms of office of the officials to be appointed expires Dec. 10.

"Mark my-words. Bome time between Dec 10 and Jan. 1 D. Lowber Smith and Henry R. Beekman will resign.

"According to his previously expressed intention Mayor Hewitt will fill the vacancies most probably by the reappointment of the same individuals.

"They will not be appointed for any specified time, but for 'unexpired terms.'

"If the position of the County Democracy that the Consolidation act is unconstitutional is correct, the 'unexpired terms for which they will be appointed will end four years from Dec. 10, 1888. If not they will go out of office May 1 next.

"By this clever arrangement Mayor Hewitt will clear himself both of the charge of conspiracy and law-breaking.

"He will simply appoint for 'unexpired terms, and will let the incumbents of the offices fight it out in the courts with the men whom Mayor Grant will appoint next May, as he suggested in his interview of yesterday, when he said:

"If anybody objected to my sction in the matter it would be his duty to go to the courts and test the question.'

"This is the scheme, you may depend on it. It is a pretty scheme, too.

"Mayor Grant's appointees will find a lively time before them next Summer when they try to take possession of those two departments."

partments."

Asked why he thought that D. Lowber Smith and Corporation Counsel Beekman would be reappointed, the gentleman said that they probably would not agree to the scheme if they were not to benefit personally

"The Evening World's" Interesting Query Awakens Interest in Georgia.

With a commendable spirit of emulation the tlanta Journal, in a recent issue, dev nearly two columns to interviews obtained from Georgia citizens of both sexes as to what they would do if they had a million dollars.

The widespread interest which was awakened The widespread interest which was awagened by this discussion in the columns of THE EVEN-NG WORLD, as evidenced from the number of etters received upon the subject, moved the Journal to follow up the idea and submit to its readers the different expressions of opinion on the interesting toric.

readers the different expressions of opinion on the interesting topic.

Among the ladies who were asked "what they would do if they had a million dollars f there were but a few cases where a portion of the money would not be devoted to charitable purposes, while among the men, while charity formed a prominent excuse for getting rid of the large sum, in the main they would devote the major part to enjoying life in all its branches. One enthusiastic individual declared that he would run a baseball team during the Summer.

Summer.

Another said he would devote seven hundred thousand of it in trying to make Atlants a Prohibition town, while an unpatriotic military gentleman announced that he would live the rest of his life in Paris.

Congratulations are due the Atlants Journal for its enterprise in following in the footsteps of The Evenius World, and procenting its readers with a lively topic for discussion, which is alike appreciated by the young and old.

What Is Catarrh

Catarrh is an inflammation of the mucous membranes, and may affect the head, throat, stomach, bowels or bladder. But entarth of the head is the most common, aften coming on so gradually that it has a firm hold before the nature of the trouble is suspected. Catarrh is caused by a cold, or succession of colds, combined with impure blood. Its local symptoms are fulness and heat in the foreshead, drynass in the nose and back part of the throat and a disagreeable discharge from the nose. When the discuss gains a firm hold on the system, it becomes chronic and is then exceedingly dangerous and translessus, liable to develop into consumption. The syste become inflamed and red, there is throbbing in the temples, ringing noises in the sars, haddache, capricious appetite ing noises in the sare, busdache, capricious appetite sometimes loss of sense of small and hearing.
